Catholic Marriage for couples married outside the Church:

If you have a civil marriage but now desire a Catholic sacramental marriage, call the Rectory for more information about a Convalidation. Convalidation is having a couple's marriage recognized and blessed by the Church through the Catholic Rite of Marriage.

Marriage:

Arrangements must be made at least six to twelve months in advance. It is advisable to call the church prior to arranging the reception.

Rite of Christian Initiation (R.C.I.A.):

Persons interested in becoming Catholic and adults who have not received Confirmation or First Eucharist, please contact the rectory office.

Communion for the Homebound:

To make arrangements to have Communion brought to the home, please call the parish office at 363-6385, ext. 110. For emergency sick calls, please call the parish at any time.

Baptisms:

Are celebrated at 1:00 p.m. on the second Saturday and fourth Sunday of most months. Please visit our website for complete information or call the rectory office.

Pray for Our Sick

We pray for all who are sick, for their healing in both body and spirit....

This system was very helpful recently when we had no heat in the Large Church and had to cancel classes. We will use it for weather cancellations and to remind families of special grade level events.

“Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity.” 1 Timothy 4:12

Thank you to last week’s guest readers at the 9:00 a.m. family mass, Jacob Christie, Logan Cirone, and Reaghan Tully. It is never easy to get in front of a large group and speak at any age, but these young parishioners stepped up and were very impressive proclaiming the Word. I would also like to thank the Cannizzaro grandchildren who brought up the gifts and Taylor and Cole who brought up the offering to the altar. You all did such a great job, thank you!

I also want to take a moment to thank the parishioners who came to the first Youth Ministry meeting here at Our Lady of the Snow. We had parishioners who ranged from being young to those who are young at heart. As Father Kevin said, the youth are not the future of the church, they are our church right now. This meeting left such a wonderful impression on me, I felt very blessed to witness the exchange of dialog between the groups and to hear what our youth want to do. If you are feeling our youth are going down the wrong path, let me tell you, I met a group that are inspiring and they are right here. Expect great things from this group! If you want to come check us out, our next meeting will be Wednesday, November 20th, at 7:00 p.m.

Lastly, a special thank you to those who contributed to our 9:00 a.m. mass hospitality, Alison, Camille, Corinne, and Elaine, you ladies can bake! For all other masses, please let me know if hospitality is something that you would like to see after all the masses perhaps once a month and if so, would you be willing to help?

Upcoming EVENTS

- There will be a Thanksgiving Day Mass on Thursday, November 28th at 9:00 a.m. in the Mother Church. Leave your food at home, we will be handing out a prayer and an item for your table.
- December 14th: For our young parishioners, please come decorate gingerbread houses in the Mother Church basement from 2:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. We will then bring the houses over to the Large Church where Father Kevin will bless them during the 5:00 p.m. Mass. Please call the rectory to reserve your child’s space. Youth Ministry members are invited to assist the younger children in constructing their houses.

Bulletin Reflection

In today’s Gospel, Jesus warns us of persecution because of our Faith. We should remember our brothers and sisters murdered in Sri Lanka this past Easter.

Living Stewardship... Pillar of Hospitality

As Christians, we will be persecuted for the Faith. Whether at home, at school, in Hollywood or online, we face the possibility of being mocked. However, we should always pray for those who persecute and mock us, as Jesus prayed for those who crucified Him.

Quick Quips

It's not what we possess, but what we enjoy, that constitutes our abundance.

Science opens to us the book of nature; comedy, the book of human nature.

There's hope for anyone who can look in the mirror and laugh at what he sees.

People who agree on what's funny usually agree on a lot of other things, as well.

For daily happiness, learn to enjoy the scenery even on a detour.

Enjoy yourself, because these are the "good old days" you're going to reminisce about later.

A joke that has to be explained is a joke that's at its wit's end.
