Very early in the morning after the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body with precious oils. The reward for this good and conscientious steward was to be the first to know that Jesus had been raised from the dead. Alleluia!

A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION IN TIME OF PANDEMIC

O Mary,
you always brighten our path
as a sign of salvation and of hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick,
who, at the Cross, took part in Jesus' pain
while remaining steadfast in faith.
O loving Mother,
you know what we need,
and we are confident you will provide for us
as at Cana in Galilee.
Intercede for us with your Son Jesus,
the Divine Physician,
for those who have fallen ill,
for those who are vulnerable,
and for those who have died.
Intercede also for those charged with protecting the health and safety of others and for those who are tending to the sick and seeking a cure.
Help us, O Mother of Divine Love,
to conform to the will of the Father
and to do as we are told by Jesus, who took upon himself our
sufferings and carried our sorrows,
so as to lead us, through the Cross,
to the glory of the Resurrection. Amen.

Under thy protection we seek refuge,
O Holy Mother of God.
In our needs, despise not our petitions,
but deliver us always from all dangers,
O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Easter 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

None of us could have imagined even weeks ago, that we would celebrate Holy Week and Easter Sunday virtually.

I have been amazed and inspired by the creativity and initiative of our pastors, our people and our parishes to continue evangelizing all of Long Island.

Whether it is video-streaming Masses and Eucharistic adoration, conducting a virtual parish mission, or a health precaution sensitive Eucharistic procession through neighborhoods, you are all moving forward and trusting in the transformative power of the Risen Christ as we continue to experience the tragedies, trauma, unemployment, financial and economic distress of the COVID-19 crisis.

The light that streams from the glorified wounds of the Risen Jesus always touches and transforms our wounds and fears, and the wounds and fears of the world.

We remember in a special way this Easter Sunday and throughout the Easter season the souls of those who have died from the corona virus and their families, and those who, as Pope Francis says, are "writing the decisive events of our time: doctors, nurses, supermarket employees, cleaners, caregivers, providers of transport, law and order forces, volunteers, priests, deacons, religious men and women and so very many others." We remember our families and the efforts of each of us to care for our families and our neighbors.

While we are all in pain that our Holy Week 2020 needs to be a virtual one, we do have a Pastoral Letter, The Great Week: A Pilgrimage with the Lord in Holy Week which can help strengthen, lift and inspire our virtual Holy Week celebrations.

This Pastoral Letter is a user-friendly, easily understandable synthesis of Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum, its liturgical theology, spirituality and history, designed to show the relationship between the Sacred Liturgies of Holy Week and Catholic Evangelization.

I encourage everyone to participate in all the Holy Week liturgies virtually through the Catholic Faith Network (see: catholicfaithnetwork.org for details) and through your own parishes streaming the liturgies.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Let's take this unique and virtual evangelization opportunity to pray that the Risen Christ might lead a massive return of Catholic Long Islanders to a full, active and conscious participation in our Holy Week liturgies and our Sunday Masses throughout the year.

I encourage you all to read and pray our Pastoral Letter which is available on our diocesan website DRVC.org and in the March 2020 Long Island Catholic magazine that many of you received at home.

I also had the opportunity on March 27, 2020, to share the Pastoral Letter with every American Bishop in the United States for possible use in their dioceses as they celebrate virtual Holy Weeks around the country.

I received an email from the Bishop of Fairbanks, Alaska. He thanked the Diocese of Rockville Centre for sharing the Holy Week Pastoral Letter with the people of Fairbanks, Alaska and said: "We have 37 remote parishes of Native Alaskans, pretty much on 'lock down' that could benefit enormously from the Pastoral Letter."

Catholic Long Islanders stand in the solidarity of the Risen Lord with Catholic Alaskans! This is just another example of the global Catholic solidarity that our Holy Father Pope Francis models for us and calls us to.

Thank you for continuing to support your parish and the vital ministries of our Church as your means allow during this most challenging time for all of us. The Church continues to serve the spiritual and physical needs of people during this crisis. Weekly collections mailed or given online will be critical to the sustaining and reemergence of our parishes.

Our Easter joy may be delayed this year, but our faith, hope and trust in the power of Jesus Christ's death and resurrection must shine brighter than ever. The cross of this crisis offers us the opportunity for a renewed and lasting appreciation for the gift of family and the transformative power of faith.

Know that you and all your families are in my heart and in my prayers as we celebrate The Great Week, Easter Sunday, the Easter Octave, Divine Mercy Sunday and the Easter Season.

He is Risen! Alleluia!

Sincerely in Christ,

Pascua 2020

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Ninguno de nosotros podría haber imaginado hace semanas, que celebraríamos la Semana Santa y el Domingo de Pascua virtualmente.

Me ha sorprendido e inspirado la creatividad e iniciativa de nuestros párrocos, nuestra gente y nuestras parroquias para continuar evangelizando toda Long Island.

Ya sea mediante las Misas en video y la adoración Eucarística, el llevar a cabo una misión parroquial virtual o hacer una procesión Eucarística, manteniendo las precauciones de salud necesarias en los vecindarios, todos siguen adelante y confían, a medida que continuamos experimentando las tragedias, los traumas, el desempleo, la angustia económica y financiera de la crisis COVID-19, en el poder transformador de Cristo Resucitado.

La luz que fluye de las heridas glorificadas de Jesús Resucitado siempre toca y transforma nuestras heridas y miedos, y las heridas y temores del mundo.

Recordamos de manera especial este Domingo de Pascua y durante toda la temporada de Pascua las almas de aquellos que han muerto por el corona virus y a sus familias, y aquellos que, como dice el Papa Francisco, están "escribiendo los acontecimientos decisivos de nuestro tiempo: los médicos, enfermeras, empleados de supermercados, limpiadores, cuidadores, proveedores de transporte, fuerzas de orden público, voluntarios, sacerdotes, diáconos, religiosos y religiosas y muchos otros". Recordamos a nuestras familias y los esfuerzos de cada uno de nosotros para cuidar a nuestras familias y a nuestros vecinos.

Si bien todos sentimos que nuestra Semana Santa 2020 debe ser virtual, tenemos una Carta Pastoral, La Semana Mayor: Una Peregrinación con el Señor en Semana Santa que puede ayudar a fortalecer, levantar e inspirar nuestras celebraciones virtuales de Semana Santa.

Esta Carta Pastoral es una síntesis fácil de entender de la Semana Santa y del Triduo Sagrado, su teología litúrgica, espiritualidad e historia, diseñada para mostrar la relación entre las Sagradas Liturgias de la Semana Santa y la Evangelización Católica.

Yo los animo a participar en todas las liturgias de la Semana Santa virtualmente a través de Catholic Faith Network (ver: catholicfaithnetwork.org para los detalles) y a través de las liturgias transmitidas por sus propias parroquias.

Aprovechemos esta oportunidad única y virtual de evangelización para rezar para que Cristo Resucitado pueda liderar un regreso masivo de los católicos de Long Island a una participación plena, activa y consciente en nuestras liturgias de Semana Santa y a nuestras Misas dominicales durante todo el año.

Les animo a todos a leer y rezar nuestra Carta Pastoral que está disponible en nuestro sitio web diocesano DRVC.org y en la revista católica Long Island Catholic de marzo de 2020 que muchos de ustedes recibieron en casa.

[Ver en la edición digital de Fe Fuerza Vida en fefuerzavida.org y en el link de la página de Facebook https://www.facebook.com/pg/fe.fuerza.vida/photos/?tab=album&album_id=2885561764815500]

También tuve la oportunidad, el 27 de marzo del 2020, de compartir la Carta Pastoral con cada uno de los Obispos en los Estados Unidos para su posible uso en sus diócesis mientras celebran la Semana Santa virtual en todo el país.

Recibí un correo electrónico del obispo de Fairbanks, Alaska. Agradeció a la Diócesis de Rockville Centre por compartir la Carta Pastoral de la Semana Santa con la gente de Fairbanks, Alaska y dijo: "Tenemos 37 parroquias remotas de nativos de Alaska, -más o menos aislados- que podrían beneficiarse enormemente de la Carta Pastoral. "

¡Los Católicos de Long Island se solidarizan con el Señor Resucitado con los Católicos de Alaska! Este es solo otro ejemplo de la solidaridad Católica global al que nuestro Santo Padre, el Papa Francisco, nos modela y nos llama.

Gracias por continuar apoyando a su parroquia y los ministerios vitales de nuestra Iglesia, ya que sus medios lo permiten durante este momento tan desafiante para todos nosotros. La Iglesia continúa sirviendo las necesidades espirituales y físicas de las personas durante esta crisis. Las colecciones semanales enviadas por correo o en línea serán fundamentales para el mantenimiento y el resurgimiento de nuestras parroquias.

Nuestra alegría de Pascua puede retrasarse este año, pero nuestra fe, esperanza y confianza en el poder de la muerte y resurrección de Jesucristo debe brillar más que nunca. La cruz de esta crisis nos ofrece la oportunidad de una apreciación renovada y duradera por el don de la familia y el poder transformador de la fe.

Sepa que usted y todas sus familias están en mi corazón y en mis oraciones al celebrar La Semana Mayor, el Domingo de Pascua, la Octava de Pascua, el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia y el tiempo de Pascua.

¡Él ha Resucitado! ¡Aleluya!

Sinceramente en Cristo,

Monthly Intentions and Development for Spiritual Adoption

April

In the 2nd month of spiritual adoption we pray for continual healthy development for the child, and an uncomplicated pregnancy for the mother--that she will receive all the loving assistance she needs during this time.

Our spiritually adopted baby is now one month old. During this first amazing month of life, the baby has grown 10,000 times his size at conception. He is totally dependent on his mother for nourishment. However, he has a heart pumping his own blood and a backbone. He is very, very tiny. The baby is most vulnerable of being aborted during the next month. Pray that the Lord of life might move the heart of his mother to give him the most precious gift of all - continued life.

The Empty Tomb

Betrayed, abandoned, mocked, crucified.
Entombed: cold, dark, sealed.
Their hopes and dreams crushed.
How would they go on?
Mourning, blaming, shaken, falling apart – once so close.
How would they go on?
Guarded, sealed, why bother going to that place of death;
there is no point,
yet to the tomb they go.
Empty, taken, cold, dark, shocked, distraught, tears, fear,
what has happened?

Morning breaks, light peeks over the hill.

Easter Morning, an empty tomb
A sign of death, ultimate loss, abandonment, dashed dreams:
the place of death transformed.

Not yet fully understanding: hope returns, sadness wanes, new life.

He is risen.
Alleluia!

Shattered lives changed, promises fulfilled, strengthened,
trusting, moving forward, together once again.
Death transformed.

Dark into Light
Cold into Warmth
Mourning into Joy.

He is risen.
Alleluia!

Do not fear: I am with you; do not be anxious: I am your God. I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand. Isaiah 41:10

A Message From Fr. Jerry Ringenback

Dear Friends at St. Frances Cabrini Parish,

Since I have not been able to celebrate Mass with you for the past few weeks due to the corona virus pandemic, I simply wanted to extend Easter greetings to all of you at St. Frances Cabrini Parish and share with you some thoughts as we enter the holiest week of the church year.

What we are experiencing on a global and national and personal level is almost beyond description. Each passing day brings us new stories of fear and desperation and at the same time stories of heroism and hope. Everyone of us is affected and each of us has our unique story of living through the pandemic of 2020.

We are constantly being updated with medical and economic information. We are also being offered advice about our emotional state and how best to deal with all the mixed emotions that surface on a daily basis. But what of our spiritual condition? This too needs attention and the great sacred days of the Triduum: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday/Easter speak to us as never before.

On Holy Thursday we remember how Jesus gathered with his disciples the night before his death offering to them his body and blood in anticipation of his death on the cross. He washes their feet and commands them to do the same for each other. These acts of radical selflessness and love provide a model for us who are living through this pandemic. And we see that in parents home schooling their children and family members caring for the elderly, medical and emergency personnel risking their lives to attend to those most in need. We see it in the simple acts of generosity of neighbor to neighbor and friend to friend. We may not be in church to receive Holy Communion, but we are nourishing and feeding each other with generous and grateful hearts.

On Good Friday we commemorate Jesus' suffering and death on the cross. We are now witnessing heartbreaking suffering and even death on a scale rarely seen. The crucifix is not an object of devotion we have suddenly discovered. It has always been an integral part of our Christian faith. We believe in a God who becomes one of us and embraces all of our suffering and dying and yet triumphs over this darkness by the light of his resurrection. He enables us to carry our individual cross, though at a time like this it may weigh us down.

As surely as Jesus rose on that first Easter morning, so our Easter will also come- perhaps not on April 12- but it will come. This is the essence of our faith. How fortunate we are to possess our Catholic faith as we endure this crisis and live in a spirit of hope and trust.

May you and your family experience the joy and consolation of Easter, and may we be together again soon.

Peace,

Fr. Jerry Ringenback, Weekend Assistant

"The Cross had asked the questions; the Resurrection had answered them...The Cross had asked: "Why does God permit evil and sin to nail Justice to a tree?" The Resurrection answered: "That sin, having done its worst, might exhaust itself and thus be overcome by Love that is stronger than either sin or death."
Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen
