Stewardship

It's who we are, it's how we live our faith

Bulletin Reflection

As Christians, we should strive every day to live the way Christ wants us to live, so as to be with Him in His Kingdom. The Gospel reading describes to us, in parables, the awesomeness of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Living Stewardship

Prayers For an End to Hatred and Division

For Healing

Gracious Lord, remember in your mercy those who suffer today. Give strength and encouragement to those who minister to their needs. Remember your promise not to let them be tested beyond what they are able to bear. Above all, give them the reassurance that you are with them as they walk through this valley of the shadows of death. And in your good time send healing of body and spirit. [Name those who need healing or help in their suffering.] In Jesus' name, Amen.

For the Sick

God of mercy, when I'm sick I often find it hard to pray. So I offer this moment of prayer when I'm well for all those who may now be too weak, too tired or too depressed to pray and to believe at this time in your goodness and mercy. May this be a healing moment for them, as it was for the woman in the Gospel who touched the hem of your garment. Amen.

Sr. Marguerite Zralek, OP

For Confidence in Prayer

O Jesus, your disciples often found you at prayer, and so they asked you to teach them how to do it. Help me to pray in confidence to the Father, just as you did. When I am facing my own agony of doubt and fear, pray with me so that I find courage and hope. When my life leads me to the cross, take my hand so that my heart stays strong. Most of all, strengthen my resolve to pray: Not my will, but yours be done. Amen.

For Confidence in the Future

Lord, you have been with me from the very beginning, and you will be there at the very end. Looking back over my life, I can see that you were with me even when I was unaware of your presence, guiding me and drawing me closer to you. Give me courage and confidence in my future, believing that your hand is upon me every day, whether I am aware of it or not. Amen.

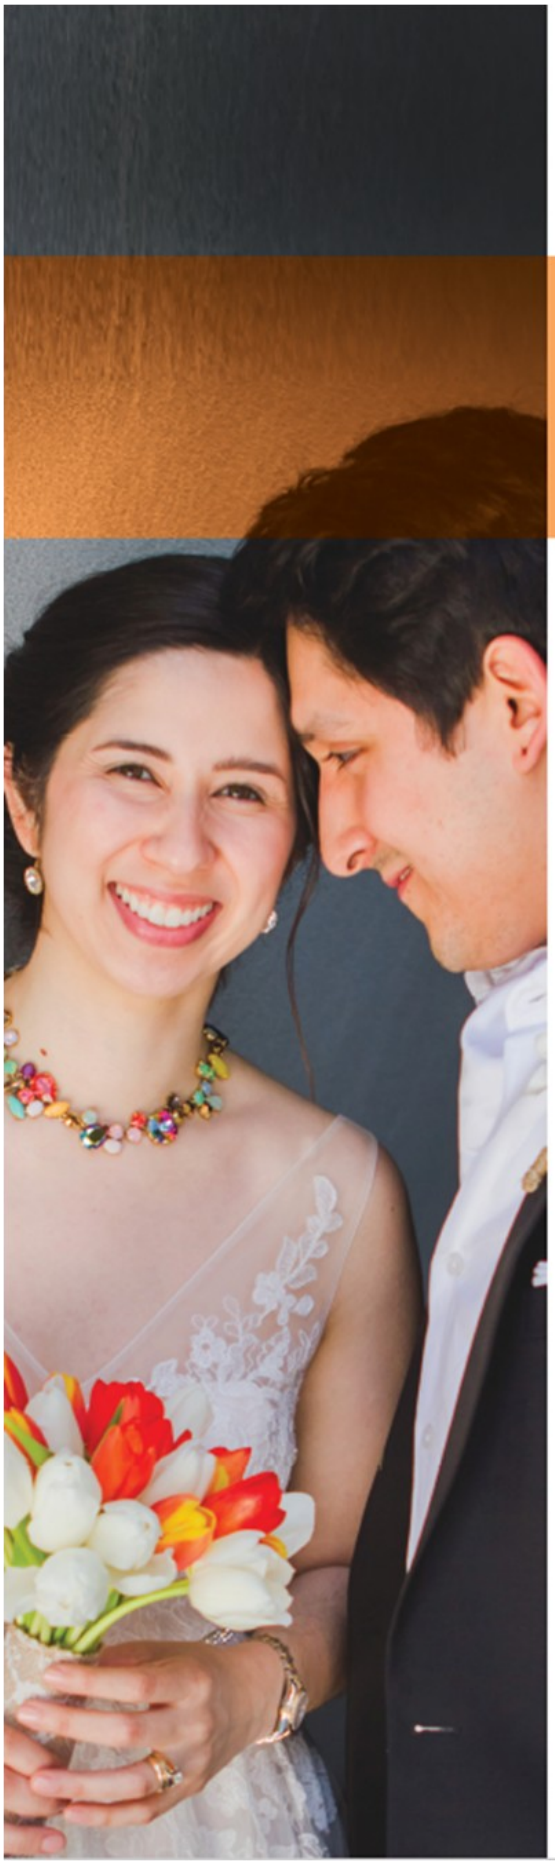
The Week of July 19 – July 25, 2020 Was National Natural Family Planning (NFP) Awareness Week

But we need to celebrate life throughout the year

The following video is in support of marriages. It is in Spanish with English subtitles but worth viewing. Without commitment to marriage and family life, the family will be destroyed and without families, the world will follow. You can also find the video through our website: sfccoram.org under the Quick Links for FORMED. https://watch.formed.org/marriage-unique-for-a-reason/season:1/videos/marriage-unique-for-a-reason-el-matrimonio-english-subtitles



Live the truth and beauty of God's plan for married love!

Creation overflows with God's life and love! Make no mistake about it—God made you and our world out of His great love! Let's consider how this truth includes marriage. And let's take a look at how the methods of Natural Family Planning (NFP) honor the truth and beauty of God's plan for married love.

It's about love.

From the beginning, God created Adam and then a suitable partner for him, Eve. The first human relationship ever created was that of marriage! "This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh" (Gen. 2: 23). The two give themselves to each other to become one. Giving of one's self to the other is a hallmark of marriage—there is no "I" in marriage, but "We." It is part of God's plan for the good of humanity. That is because marriage reflects the love of God—permanent, faithful, and fruitful. And, with the coming of our salvation in Jesus, marriage reflects the love of Christ for His Church.

The methods of NFP honor and even have the potential to protect and strengthen a married couple's ability to reflect God's love. That is because NFP requires communication and cooperation between husband and wife. NFP methods, which are rooted in science, make use of education and behavioral change for achieving and avoiding pregnancy. When learned and used correctly, they are an effective means of responsible parenthood.

As a couple learns about their combined gift of fertility and understands the best time to either conceive or postpone conceiving a baby, they are better able to discern God's plan for their marriage. If delaying a pregnancy, they will abstain from the marital act. They then will do nothing to harm God's gift of fertility. The use of NFP often requires self-sacrifice as the spouses explore other ways to show affection for each other when periodically abstaining to postpone pregnancy. As they work together, a husband and wife will find that this may deepen their emotional and spiritual intimacy as spouses.

It's about life.

God created men and women in His image—male and female. Human sexuality is part of God's plan. It is woven into the fabric of each man and woman. Human sexuality carries within it the two-fold powers of love and life. The essential nature of this two-fold truth should be appreciated and respected.

In marriage, husband and wife deepen their love for one another through celebrating the truth of their sexual union. The marital embrace is a spousal gift with a two-fold purpose; to draw the spouses closer together, to be unitive and to be procreative, to be life-giving.

Procreation is the Lord God's awesome invitation and a sacred duty for husband and wife to share in His creative power! Sometimes a couple is unable to have children through no fault of their own. Their challenge is to offer their marital love as a blessing in the community in service to others.

Marriage is the foundation to build families—children are "the supreme gift of marriage" (Gaudium et spes, no. 50), and marriage creates a secure home for children. God's procreative invitation to husband and wife extends past pregnancy and calls parents to steward their children: to nurture them, to teach them to love God and neighbor.

The Church has always understood that God wants parents to be open to life and to care for their children. To be a parent is a life-long vocation! It is why the Church can say that married couples receive "a kind of consecration" in their marital duties (Gaudium et spes, no. 48).

NFP methods support God's gift of procreation because they value new life. Unlike contraception, which exists to deny human fertility, NFP respects natural fertility. NFP education enables husband and wife to understand their window of fertility—when they are most likely to become pregnant—and therefore, can also be used to help them achieve a pregnancy besides postpone one. NFP respects God's power of life. Contraception cannot do that!

It's about freedom.

Free will is one of God's gifts to men and women. When God created humanity, He made the human person as a "rational" being—who can initiate, control, and decide how to act (see the Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1730). Freedom of conscience is a gift from God that allows each person to grow in maturity and to be able to love Him and neighbor freely. At the same time, the Catholic faith tells us that true freedom can only be found when we choose to love God. Freedom, therefore, is not the arbitrary ability to do whatever we'd like at any time.

True freedom is the ability to recognize the good and do what is right. If a person chooses to live a life in which he or she makes choices only thinking of his/her own happiness and fails to do the good to which God calls him or her, the person creates a type of prison for themselves (see Catechism, no. 1740). Doing what is right in life often requires personal sacrifice for a greater good than one's own desire or pleasure. And, this good is liberating!

As applied to marriage, the decisions of spouses can either build up or tear down the heart of a marriage. How the spouses exercise their individual freedom within the marriage cannot be made in isolation but must be made in recognition of each other's needs, that of their children, extended family, and other obligations and responsibilities outside the home.

Healthy marital communication is especially important regarding conjugal relations. Sin affects us all. It is deceptive. Sin can twist the good of the marital embrace. Spouses can be selfish in how they treat each other. Wholesome inter-mutuality that is rooted in the love of God and each other strengthens a couple's marriage. Spouses need to support each other in striving to honor God's design by rejecting anything that can injure their marital love. It is the reason why the Church opposes contraception. It strikes at the heart of marital love.

The methods of NFP provide useful information on the woman's fertility cycle. NFP helps a husband and wife determine whether their lovemaking may result in bringing a new life into the world. The practice of daily charting the wife's signs of fertility can spark deep conversation about God's plan for their marriage. The practice of NFP can promote mutual growth in self-mastery, foster emotional, and spiritual maturity, and lead to a more authentic life lived in the freedom of God's design.

It's about gift.

God is love. In His great love, God created men and women in His image to share His divine life. When our first parents turned away from Him, God sought them. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life" (John 3:16).

Every human life is a gift from God, and, in turn, like our Heavenly Father, together we are gift to each other. We cannot fully discover who we are as persons "except through a sincere gift" of ourselves to each other (see Gaudium et spes, no. 24). Human beings are able to be fully human only when we reach out to our neighbor to form a network of loving relationships of life and love. We are all sons and daughters of the one family of God!

Marriage is a particularly unique gift from God. Marriage is not "the effect of chance or the product of evolution of unconscious natural forces; it is the wise institution of the Creator to realize in mankind His design of love (Humanae vitae, no. 8). God designed marriage to bring a man and a woman together in the one-flesh union that Scripture so eloquently teaches (Gen. 2:24). It is because of marriage that families come to be.

Today, we are fortunate to live in a time where human reproduction is well understood. The reliable methods of NFP stand upon solid research about male and female physiology. NFP science has confirmed the fertile signs of the woman's menstrual cycle and marked the parameters of a man and a woman's combined fertility, which creates the fertile window. NFP can be a moral means to either achieve or postpone a pregnancy. And, for women, NFP charting can provide insight into the health of her reproductive system. With so good a gift in our world, why not learn more about these healthy and ethical methods that support God's plan for married love? Visit usccb.org/nfp. And remember "live the truth and beauty of God's plan for married love!"

The diocese continues to encourage all those who are frail or have underlying health issues to remain at home. The dispensation from attending mass is still in effect.

For anyone attending mass, all restrictions are still in effect; everyone with the exception of the priest (while he celebrates the mass) must wear a mask; families may sit together but all others must adhere to social distancing; missals/hymnals will not be available for use; and we would not be able to distribute bulletins, but a limited amount are available to be taken when mass is over. Communion will be distributed at the end of mass with proper precautions being taken. We ask that those coming to receive communion, remove their mask and gloves and maintain six feet from the person in front of you. Please, process from front to back on one side and then the other. This helps to keep the contact with others to a minimum. Thank you for your cooperation.

Stay safe, keep praying; and for those of you who are still not able to attend, we hope to see you soon and know you are in our prayers.

God Bless You.

Monthly Intentions and Development for Spiritual Adoption

July

In the 5th month of spiritual adoption we pray that the child's father will encourage and facilitate the mother's life-affirming choice, and be willing to act as a responsible provider.

Our baby's brain has begun maturing - a process that will continue until she is about 14 years old. Her eyelids now are sealed shut and will reopen at seven months. Her taste buds are working. Nutrients consumed by her mother are passed on to her within an hour or two. Three hundred quarts of fluid a day are sent to our baby via the umbilical cord. Fine hair begins to grow on her head, eyebrows and eyelashes. Facial expressions similar to the baby's parents can be seen at this time. This month's rapid eye movements (REM) have been recorded - a sign of dreaming. I am about six inches tall and I weigh four ounces - a proper weight for a girl my age.

ADVISORY

Please be aware of callers using spoofing software to enable the calls to appear as if they were coming from a legitimate source, such as Social Security, the IRS, other government entities, credit card companies or utilities.

This is just one of a number of scams to which people are falling victim. The Suffolk County Police Department is reminding residents that neither government agencies nor utility companies will ask for payment of fees, fines or bills via prepaid gift cards.

Always be wary of any calls that are threatening in nature and never give any important information.

Scammers may also send an email that appears to be from a legitimate company such as Amazon, indicating that your order is being sent. The order will be for an expensive item with the instructions to call a phone number if you did not place the order. Your first instinct will be to call the number listed in the email. DO NOT CALL. Instead you can find the number to call for the vendor that you supposedly ordered from and let them know of the email you received. If you call the number listed in the email, they will then try to verify information and in so doing you will inadvertently give them personal information that they will then use to steal your identity.

Prayer of St Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master,
grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
Amen.

St. Frances Cabrini Religious Formation

Help Us - Opportunities

We are in need of volunteers. YOU are very important to our program! It has been a long tradition at St. Frances Cabrini that our parish family has offered their time and talents. It is through caring, sharing and praying that our community has grown in love and support of one another. The success of our religious formation program depends on the dedicated individuals in our parish willing to share their time, talents and faith with the future church, our parish children. We encourage all our parishioners, as well as parents of children in our program to help out in some way. We are always in need of catechists, assistant catechists, and safety monitors who oversee the arrival and dismissal of our students.

CATECHISTS & ASSISTANT CATECHISTS

"Go Make Disciples and teach them everything that I have commanded you."

Please consider volunteering as a catechist or assistant catechist for the primary levels 1 to 6 or junior high levels 7 and 8. The Mission of a Catechist and Assistant Catechist is such an important one. It is a mission that has been given to the whole Church: that every individual Christian shares in the work of Jesus Christ. The Role of a Catechist and Assistant Catechist is to bring our young people closer to Jesus and grow in their faith as Catholics. Through their service the catechist and assistant catechist nurtures and mentors the faith and spiritual growth of the children they teach so that they may form a firm commitment to follow Christ. Qualifications of a Catechist or Assistant Catechist: A catechist or assistant catechist must be at least 18 years old, a practicing catholic in good standing who attends weekly Mass regularly, has a love for children, the desire to grow in faith and share that journey with young people, the ability to relate well to others, a sense of humor and flexibility, and a willingness to be of service to the Church. Catechist and Assistant Catechist Formation: Training and support is available to all our catechists and assistant catechists.

Please consider, pray and call me. Deacon Sonny 631-698-3149
