Ash Wednesday
Some History and Covid-19 Adjustments

About the year 1000, an Anglo-Saxon priest named Aelfric preached, “We read in the books both in the Old Law and in the New that the men who repented of their sins bestrewed themselves with ashes and clothed their bodies with sackcloth. Now let us do this little at the beginning of our Lent that we strew ashes upon our heads to signify that we ought to repent of our sins during the Lenten fast.” Adapted from: CATHOLIC ENCYCLOPEDIA: Ash Wednesday (newadvent.org)

On Ash Wednesday, we use ashes made from the burned palm branches distributed on the Palm Sunday of the previous year. The priest blesses the ashes and as has been the custom in the United States, imposes them on the foreheads of the faithful, making the sign of the cross and saying, “Repent and believe in the Gospel.”

This year due to the Covid-19 virus, the ancient practice of sprinkling ashes on top of the head will be used. The presider will say only once “repent and believe in the gospel,” then anyone who desires that ashes be sprinkled on their head will come forward. If you do not want ashes sprinkled on top of your head, please do not come forward. Ashes will not be put on your foreheads.

As we begin the season of Lent in preparation for Easter, we must remember the significance of the ashes: We do penance for our sins. We convert our hearts to the Lord, who suffered, died, and rose for our salvation. We renew the promises made at our baptism, when we died to an old life and rose to a new life with Christ. Finally, mindful that the kingdom of this world passes away, we strive to live the kingdom of God now and look forward to its fulfillment in heaven.

LECTORS WANTED PLEASE CONSIDER VOLUNTEERING

The dictionary tells us that a Lector is a person who proclaims (reads) aloud the scriptural passages at Mass.

What is a Lector?

A lector is the person who proclaims the first or second reading at Mass. This person also may lead the Prayers of the Faithful at Mass.

A lector must have the qualifications listed below and have a desire to minister in this capacity at the Eucharistic liturgy. This ministry in the Church requires a person who is of excellent character and serious about the practice of their faith.

The lector must believe that Sacred Scripture is the Word of God and have deep respect for God's presence in that Word.

How does a person become a Lector?

Parishioners may volunteer to become lectors by contacting the Pastor, Fr. Gil Lap, or Deacon Sonny Pagnotta. However, lectors will be selected after all other criteria have been established on the basis of objective pastoral need.

Lectors will be carefully chosen based on their skills in proclamation, their willingness to complete formation in this ministry and their evidence of a deep spirituality.

Who can be a Lector?

- man, woman or young person (grade 7 or older)
- a person in full communion with the Catholic Church
- a person serious about the practice of their faith
- a person who is willing to complete a parish and/or diocesan formation process

The two requirements for lectors listed in the General Instruction are that they are to be truly suited to perform this function and that they should receive careful preparation. The General Introduction to the Lectionary provides a more detailed description of the qualifications for non-instituted lectors:

If you are an adult and feel you may have the gift of proclaiming, please contact our Lector Coordinator, Deacon Sonny Pagnotta at (631) 698-3149

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 31, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Beginning Sunday, January 31, 2021 and continuing through February 6, 2021, the 35 Catholic elementary schools in the Diocese of Rockville Centre will participate in the annual national celebration of Catholic education: Catholic Schools Week.

The theme for National Catholic Schools Week 2021 is "Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service." Schools typically observe the week with Masses, open houses and other activities for students, families, parishioners, and community members. Through these events, schools focus on the value Catholic education provides young people and its contributions to our church, our communities, and our nation.

This year, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Catholic Schools Week will look a bit different. In lieu of the traditional open houses our schools have held in the past to meet with prospective families, the schools will be offering virtual open houses and one-to-one meetings with principals that will allow prospective families to 'visit' the Catholic school(s) of their choice from the safety and comfort of their homes.

This year, in spite of the pandemic, we have made significant progress transforming our schools through the Morning Star Initiative (MSI). Many elements of the Morning Star Initiative are already in place, like key academic improvements in mathematics, reading, and religious studies, which are helping students reach new potential. I am so grateful for the tireless dedication of the MSI team.

Working with the MSI team, Long Island's Catholic elementary school faculty and staff continue to put the needs of the 11,626 students (nursery-8th grade) and their families first. From maintaining the continuity of instruction during remote learning when the Covid-19 pandemic hit back in March, to taking all of the necessary precautions to welcome students back into a safe school environment this fall, I am extremely grateful for the grit and determination demonstrated by our school community to address the academic, spiritual and social needs of our students.

Earlier this month, on January 4, 2021, we celebrated the 200th anniversary of the death of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton (1774-1821), one of the great native-born American Evangelizers and champions of Catholic Education. Please join me in praying that Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton and Mary, Star of Evangelization continue to intercede for each of us, for our Morning Star and Department of Education teams, and for our principals, teachers, and staff. With prayers and gratitude for your efforts, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ John O. Barres

Thanks for all you do for our parish!

Ash Wednesday is February 17th

Do you have old palm from previous years? If so, we can use it to make ashes for Ash Wednesday. If you would like to bring in your old palm to church, just see one of the ushers who will be happy to take it from you. Or you can bring it to the rectory during normal business hours. Please drop off palm before February 14th. Thanks for your assistance.

Prayer for Hope

Heavenly father, I am your humble servant, I come before you today in need of hope. There are times when I feel helpless, There are times when I feel weak. I pray for hope. I need hope for a better future. I need hope for a better life. I need hope for love and kindness. Some say that the sky is at it's darkest just before the light. I pray that this is true, for all seems dark. I need your light, Lord, in every way. I pray to be filled with your light from head to toe. To bask in your glory. To know that even though the world seems upside down, You alone can bring about light from darkness. Help me to walk in your light, and live my life in faith and glory.

In your name I pray, Amen.
