Mission Statement

St. Frances Cabrini Church is a Roman Catholic parish community with ethnic diversity. Our central focus is the Eucharist from which all aspects of parish life emanate. Being a Spirit filled, prayerful and proactive parish, we foster Christian family life, evangelization, and the spiritual nourishment of all parishioners, both young and old. We endeavor to follow the example of St. Frances Cabrini and attend to all God's children in their temporal and spiritual needs in order to alleviate their suffering. We do all in the name of Jesus who is Lord and Savior of us all.

Our parish enjoys a rainbow of activities for all ages in Liturgy and in Service. If you wish to join or volunteer, please contact the rectory.

Ash Wednesday
Some History and Covid-19 Adjustments

About the year 1000, an Anglo-Saxon priest named Aelfric preached, “We read in the books both in the Old Law and in the New that the men who repented of their sins bestrewed themselves with ashes and clothed their bodies with sackcloth. Now let us do this little at the beginning of our Lent that we strew ashes upon our heads to signify that we ought to repent of our sins during the Lenten fast.” Adapted from: CATHOLIC ENCYCLOPEDIA: Ash Wednesday (newadvent.org)

On Ash Wednesday, we use ashes made from the burned palm branches distributed on the Palm Sunday of the previous year. The priest blesses the ashes and as has been the custom in the United States, imposes them on the foreheads of the faithful, making the sign of the cross and saying, “Repent and believe in the Gospel.”

This year due to the Covid-19 virus, the ancient practice of sprinkling ashes on top of the head will be used. The presider will say only once “repent and believe in the gospel,” then anyone who desires that ashes be sprinkled on their head will come forward. If you do not want ashes sprinkled on top of your head, please do not come forward. Ashes will not be put on your foreheads.

As we begin the season of Lent in preparation for Easter, we must remember the significance of the ashes: We do penance for our sins. We convert our hearts to the Lord, who suffered, died, and rose for our salvation. We renew the promises made at our baptism, when we died to an old life and rose to a new life with Christ. Finally, mindful that the kingdom of this world passes away, we strive to live the kingdom of God now and look forward to its fulfillment in heaven.

LECTORS WANTED PLEASE CONSIDER VOLUNTEERING

The dictionary tells us that a Lector is a person who proclaims (reads) aloud the scriptural passages at Mass.

What is a Lector?

A lector is the person who proclaims the first or second reading at Mass. This person also may lead the Prayers of the Faithful at Mass.

A lector must have the qualifications listed below and have a desire to minister in this capacity at the Eucharistic liturgy. This ministry in the Church requires a person who is of excellent character and serious about the practice of their faith.

The lector must believe that Sacred Scripture is the Word of God and have deep respect for God's presence in that Word.

How does a person become a Lector?

Parishioners may volunteer to become lectors by contacting the Pastor, Fr. Gil Lap, or Deacon Sonny Pagnotta. However, lectors will be selected after all other criteria have been established on the basis of objective pastoral need.

Lectors will be carefully chosen based on their skills in proclamation, their willingness to complete formation in this ministry and their evidence of a deep spirituality.

Who can be a Lector?

- man, woman or young person (grade 7 or older)
- a person in full communion with the Catholic Church
- a person serious about the practice of their faith
- a person who is willing to complete a parish and/or diocesan formation process

The two requirements for lectors listed in the General Instruction are that they are to be truly suited to perform this function and that they should receive careful preparation. The General Introduction to the Lectionary provides a more detailed description of the qualifications for non-instituted lectors:

If you are an adult and feel you may have the gift of proclaiming, please contact our Lector Coordinator, Deacon Sonny Pagnotta at (631) 698-3149

Many Thanks

To our volunteers who clean the church Friday mornings and to all those who stay after mass to clean the pews. This is a tremendous help to the parish. Please, try to be respectful to these volunteers by not leaving tissues in the pews or on the floor. If we all do a little to help, it makes things easier for all.

Valentine Blessings to All

Lent 2021

Dear Friends:

"The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan...After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the Gospel of God."(Mark 1:12 – 14) Each year on the First Sunday of Lent, the Church presents for our reflection and prayer the experience of Jesus in the desert. Jesus's experience in the desert follows immediately upon His baptism by Saint John the Baptist and immediately precedes His public ministry and proclamation of the Kingdom of God, in word and in deed. Saint Mark points out to us that the Spirit, who had just descended upon Jesus in the form of a dove, drove Jesus into the desert.

The desert was a barren place, a place of lifelessness, the home of the devil and evil. The Spirit sends Jesus into the desert to prepare himself for the years of His public ministry, ultimately leading to His Death and Resurrection. Jesus spends time away from the world to prepare himself. But He also goes forth into the desert to begin His battle against evil, sin and death. Jesus goes into the very dwelling of evil to begin the confrontation. This battle will continue throughout the rest of Jesus's life. The ultimate victory will come on Good Friday through His ultimate act of love on the Cross.

Our yearly experience of Lent, our forty day "desert experience," can be viewed in the same way. We are inspired and sent by the Spirit to spend some time apart from the world of noise and recover the beauty of silence. But, we are also sent to do battle. Our experience of true silence should allow us the opportunity to both listen to the voice and promptings of God as well as to better know ourselves. This personal battle against sin and evil can be painful, because we come to realize that we are all in need of constant conversion. There are real changes each and every one of us need to make in our lives and our hearts this Lent. But like Jesus, we are not alone. The Lord was ministered to by angels during His forty days in the desert. We are constantly aided by our guardian angels, by the angels and saints in heaven, by the community of the baptized, and by the grace of the sacraments of the Church. Like Jesus, we need to emerge from the desert ready to take on the evils of the world and work to spread the Gospel.

It was only a few short weeks into Lent 2020 that the experience of Covid-19 made radical changes to our society, our Church, and our families. The experience of desert isolation was no longer a metaphor but a lived reality. The experience of having our parishes locked down for months was painful for all of us. Many of us still experience this isolation in many ways. But as Christians we always remain men and women of hope. We know that the Cross of Good Friday leads to the empty tomb of Easter Sunday.

Pope Francis has declared this year as a special Year of Saint Joseph. In Saint Joseph we find a man of profound hope and strength as well as prayerful silence. Scripture does not record one word spoken by Saint Joseph. But Scripture does tell us of his unwavering faith and trust, which go beyond words. Following Jesus, and like Saint Joseph, men and women in the first centuries of the Church began to leave the towns and villages and settle in the isolation of the desert. Like the Lord, they sought to rid themselves of the distractions of everyday life so they too could do battle with evil, and through their quiet example proclaim the Kingdom of God.

This continued throughout the history of the Church, even to our present moment. Saint Antony, Saint Benedict, Saint Bruno, and so many others show us the lived experience of the desert is not an escape from the reality of life but a privileged encounter with the Lord and a revelation of our true selves. While most of us are not called to the monastic or solitary life, the last twelve months have given each of us an experience of solitude. We are encouraged to remain "socially distant." In the midst of the real suffering and hardships this has caused, perhaps the hidden grace is that it has led us to be "temporary monastics."

Our typical Lenten "desert experience" of forty days has lasted a bit longer. But we will come out of it! And like the Lord, when we emerge our goal is to proclaim the Gospel of God according to our vocation and the graces given to us. In addition to our personal sins and the evils present in our own hearts, we live in a world that is right now suffering from real physical illness as well as real division and hurt of every kind. Jesus emerged from the desert bringing the healing presence of God to all he encountered. As the baptized, the Church, the continuing presence of Jesus in the world, we need to do the same. The same Holy Spirit that drove Jesus into the desert is driving us on.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ John O. Barres

Cuaresma 2021

Queridos amigos:

"El Espíritu expulsó a Jesús al desierto, y permaneció en el desierto durante cuarenta días, tentado por Satanás ... Después de que Juan fue arrestado, Jesús vino a Galilea proclamando el Evangelio de Dios" (Marcos 1:12-14). El primer domingo de Cuaresma, la Iglesia presenta para nuestra reflexión y oración la experiencia de Jesús en el desierto. La experiencia de Jesús en el desierto sigue inmediatamente a Su bautismo por San Juan Bautista y precede inmediatamente a Su ministerio público y proclamación del Reino de Dios, de palabra y de hecho. San Marcos nos señala que el Espíritu, que acababa de descender sobre Jesús en forma de paloma, lo llevó al desierto.

El desierto era un lugar estéril, un lugar sin vida, el hogar del diablo y el mal. El Espíritu envía a Jesús al desierto para prepararse para los años de su ministerio público, lo que finalmente lo lleva a su muerte y resurrección. Jesús pasa tiempo fuera del mundo para prepararse. Pero también sale al desierto para comenzar su batalla contra el mal, el pecado y la muerte. Jesús entra en la misma morada del mal para comenzar la confrontación. Esta batalla continuará durante el resto de la vida de Jesús. La victoria final vendrá el Viernes Santo a través de Su último acto de amor en la Cruz.
Nuestra experiencia anual de Cuaresma, nuestra "experiencia en el desierto" de cuarenta días, puede verse de la misma manera. Somos inspirados y enviados por el Espíritu para pasar un tiempo apartados del mundo del ruido y recuperar la belleza del silencio. Pero también somos enviados a la batalla. Nuestra experiencia del verdadero silencio debe permitirnos la oportunidad tanto de escuchar la voz y las impresiones de Dios como de conocernos mejor a nosotros mismos. Esta batalla personal contra el pecado y el mal puede ser dolorosa, porque nos damos cuenta de que todos necesitamos una conversión constante. Hay cambios reales que todos y cada uno de nosotros debemos hacer en nuestras vidas y corazones en esta Cuaresma. Pero como Jesús, no estamos solos. El Señor fue ministrado por ángeles durante Sus cuarenta días en el desierto. Nos ayudan constantemente nuestros ángeles de la guarda, los ángeles y los santos del cielo, la comunidad de los bautizados y la gracia de los sacramentos de la Iglesia. Como Jesús, debemos salir del desierto listos para enfrentar los males del mundo y trabajar para difundir el Evangelio.

Fueron solo unas pocas semanas después de la Cuaresma 2020 que la experiencia de Covid-19 hizo cambios radicales en nuestra sociedad, nuestra Iglesia y nuestras familias. La experiencia del aislamiento en el desierto ya no era una metáfora, sino una realidad vivida. La experiencia de tener nuestras parroquias cerradas durante meses fue dolorosa para todos nosotros. Muchos de nosotros todavía experimentamos este aislamiento de muchas maneras. Pero como cristianos siempre seguimos siendo hombres y mujeres de esperanza. Sabemos que la Cruz del Viernes Santo conduce al sepulcro vacío del Domingo de Resurrección.
El Papa Francisco ha declarado este año como un Año especial de San José. En San José encontramos a un hombre de profunda esperanza y fortaleza, así como de silencio orante. La Escritura no registra una sola palabra de San José. Pero la Escritura nos habla de su fe y confianza inquebrantables, que van más allá de las palabras. Siguiendo a Jesús, y como a San José, los hombres y mujeres de los primeros siglos de la Iglesia empezaron a salir de los pueblos y aldeas para asentarse en el aislamiento del desierto. Como el Señor, buscaron deshacerse de las distracciones de la vida diaria para que ellos también pudieran luchar contra el mal y, a través de su tranquilo ejemplo, proclamar el Reino de Dios.

Esto continuó a lo largo de la historia de la Iglesia, incluso hasta nuestro momento presente. San Antonio, San Benito, San Bruno y tantos otros nos muestran que la experiencia vivida del desierto no es un escape a la realidad de la vida sino un encuentro privilegiado con el Señor y una revelación de nuestro verdadero yo. Si bien la mayoría de nosotros no estamos llamados a la vida monástica o solitaria, los últimos doce meses nos han dado a cada uno de nosotros una experiencia de soledad. Se nos anima a permanecer "socialmente distantes". En medio del sufrimiento real y las dificultades que esto ha causado, quizás la gracia oculta es que nos ha llevado a ser "monásticos temporales".

Nuestra típica "experiencia del desierto" cuaresmal de cuarenta días ha durado un poco más. ¡Pero saldremos de esto! Y como el Señor, cuando salimos nuestro objetivo es anunciar el Evangelio de Dios según nuestra vocación y las gracias que se nos han dado. Además de nuestros pecados personales y los males presentes en nuestros propios corazones, vivimos en un mundo que en este momento está sufriendo una enfermedad física real, así como una división real y heridas de todo tipo. Jesús emergió del desierto llevando la presencia sanadora de Dios a todos los que encontró. Como bautizados, la Iglesia, la presencia continua de Jesús en el mundo, debemos hacer lo mismo. El mismo Espíritu Santo que llevó a Jesús al desierto nos impulsa.

Sinceramente en Cristo,
