Being a Spirit filled, prayerful and proactive parish, we foster Christian family life, evangelization, and the spiritual nourishment of all parishioners, both young and old. We endeavor to follow the example of St. Frances Cabrini and attend to all God's children in their temporal and spiritual needs in order to alleviate their suffering. WE NEED HELP!

MAYBE IT'S TIME FOR YOU TO RESPOND TO THE CALL OF THE HOLY SPIRIT AND SHARE YOUR LOVE, CARE AND COMPASSION

When it comes to Religious Formation parents are the primary and first educators of their children in the faith. The church in her wisdom has called people to help them in formation. There are many areas to work in: with children, youth, young adults, adults, RCIA, etc. Formation is a lifelong process. We can never know all there is to know about the faith. Those who wish to help in this, sometimes begin by volunteering as a classroom assistant in our formation school. If they care to pursue it further, it is helpful to attend classes on the process and various topics within Religious Formation. You can find most all these courses for free (or for a small fee) within our Diocese and on line. There are also large, dedicated certification programs all over the place; at parishes, the Diocese, and online.

Why not consider becoming a Catechist or an Assistant Catechist. The effort as a catechist or an assistant can be fascinating and rewarding. I am here to guide you!

We Support You

- We structure classes to have a lead Catechist and an Assistant Catechist. This partnership eases classroom management and sets up a learning environment for the children.
- We provide training for Catechists to make sure they are comfortable in their role. We are here to assist you in whatever you need to succeed.
- We use a book curriculum. Each lesson has Catechist instructions, suggested activities and alternate activities as well as review materials.

Frequently Asked Questions

- Do I need Teaching Experience?

No, most Catechists and Assistant Catechists are not professional teachers. With our support, a desire to share your faith with the children is enough!

- What if I Don't Know all the Answers?

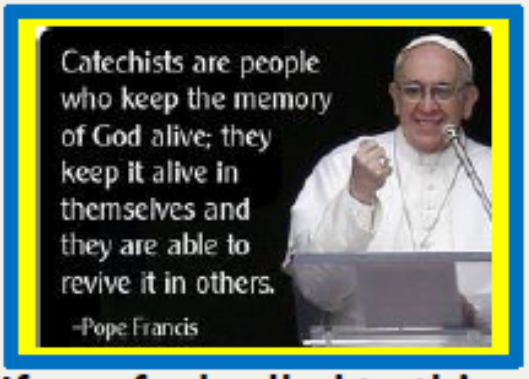
No one know all the answers, that's part of learning about faith. You will be well prepared with the training and materials provided and your own natural sincerity about your faith. Jesus said, "I am always with you," – Matthew 28:20

- How Much Do I Need to Prepare?

A Catechist will want to read the lesson materials provided and decide on the activities you want to use. Most Catechists report that only a moderate amount of time and effort are required to prepare. As an Assistant Catechist you are there to support the Catechist.

Being a Catechist or an Assistant Catechist is a very small-time commitment with huge rewards as you watch a child grow in relationship with God. Our classes are on Monday and Tuesdays 5:30-6:45pm; and Sundays After the 9:30am Mass until 11:15am.

Please prayerfully consider becoming a part of forming the faith of our children, the future of our Church.



If you feel called to this Ministry.....Please contact Deacon Sonny at 631-698-3149 Or EMAIL deaconsonnyp@yahoo.com

REMEMBER IT IS IN GIVING THAT WE RECEIVE

Mothers

Somebody said that a child is carried in its mother's womb for nine months. Somebody does not know that a child is carried in its mother's heart forever. Somebody said it takes about six weeks to get back to normal after you've had a baby. Somebody doesn't know that once you're a mother, normal is history. Somebody said you learn how to be a mother by instinct. Somebody never took a three-year-old shopping. Somebody said being a mother is boring. Somebody never rode in a car driven by a teenager with a driver's permit. Somebody said if you're a "good" mother, your child will "turn out good." Somebody thinks a child comes with directions and a guarantee. Somebody said "good" mothers never raise their voices. Somebody never came out the back door just in time to see her child hit a golf ball through the neighbor's kitchen window. Somebody said you don't need an education to be a mother. Somebody never helped a fourth grader with his math. Somebody said you can't love the fifth child as much as you love the first. Somebody doesn't have five children. Somebody said a mother can find all the answers to her child-rearing questions in the books. Somebody never had a child stuff beans up his nose. Somebody said the hardest part of being a mother is labor and delivery. Somebody never watched her "baby" get on the bus for the first day of kindergarten. Somebody said a mother can do her job with her eyes closed and one hand tied behind her back. Somebody never organized seven giggling Brownies to sell cookies. Somebody said a mother can stop worrying after her child gets married. Somebody doesn't know that marriage adds a new son or daughter-in-law to a mother's heartstrings. Somebody said a mother's job is done when her last child leaves home. Somebody never had grandchildren. Somebody said your mother knows you love her, so you don't need to tell her. Somebody isn't a mother.

Grandmothers

Once upon a time there was a child ready to be born. The child asked God, "They tell me you are sending me to earth tomorrow, but how am I going to live there being so small and helpless?" God replied, "Among the angels, I'll choose one for you. Your angel will be waiting for you and will take care of you." The child further inquired, "But tell me, here in heaven I don't have to do anything but sing and smile to be happy." God said, "Your angel will sing for you and will also smile for you every day. And you will feel your angel's love and be very happy." Again the child asked, "And how am I going to be able to understand when people talk to me if I don't know the language?" God said, "Your angel will tell you the most beautiful and sweet words you will ever hear, and with much patience and care, your angel will teach you how to speak." "And what am I going to do when I want to talk to you?" God said, "Your angel will place your hands together and will teach you how to pray." "I've heard that on Earth there are bad people. Who will protect me?" God said, "Your angel will defend you even if it means risking its life." "But I will always be sad because I will not see you anymore." God said, "Your angel will always talk to you about me and will teach you the way to come back to me, even though I will always be next to you." At that moment there was much peace in heaven, but voices from Earth could be heard and the child hurriedly asked, "God, if I am to leave now, please tell me my angel's name." Her name is not important. You will simply call her "GRANDMA."

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

May 6, 2021

Dear Nurses of Long Island:

In this last year, no one was left unaffected by the trials and tribulations of the COVID-19 pandemic, but nurses, in a most profound way, were at the frontline from the very beginning, have been there during the darkest hours, and will be there to the very end. I am most grateful for the dedication of every nurse in our Diocese of Rockville Centre who, called to duty in these unprecedented times, demonstrated the grace, strength, and perseverance that epitomizes the Nursing profession and our Christian duty to care for the sick and suffering.

But it is more than just the last year. I thank every one of you in our hospitals, nursing homes and rehabilitation centers, home care environments, hospices, primary care and specialty clinics, schools, and most especially in our Catholic Health system, for giving selflessly, throughout your careers, and bringing Christ's compassion and consolation to so many. I thank you for seeing the beauty and dignity of the human person in every patient you serve.

In the last year, I know how so many of you, painfully aware of the dangers you faced with an unknown infection, bravely donned full body Personal Protective Equipment to minister to the sick and dying in our hospitals, nursing homes and private residences. But I also know of the less-chronicled times you have been away from your own families for extended shifts during a snowstorm or hurricane, when you have brought cheer with a small token of love for a lonesome patient, when you have listened or prayed with a family member, and when you have rejoiced over the news of a cure or recovery. At the same time, you have been there to comfort, console, and accompany many patients and their families through difficult times. You have been at the foot of the Cross.

It is for these qualities of character, this deep commitment, and these sacrifices whether small or heroic, that we know those who enter the field of Nursing have a special vocation: to bring Christ to the bedside, to heal the wounds of the body, and more importantly, those of the soul.

And so, as we mark National Nurses Week, it is with the sincerest gratitude that I thank you for all you do to serve God's people here on Long Island, for bearing witness to His call to love our neighbor: "For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" (Gal 5:14). Nursing, in its purest form, manifests this truth articulated by Pope Benedict XVI in Caritas in Veritate: "everything has its origin in God's love, everything is shaped by it, everything is directed towards it. Love is God's greatest gift to humanity; it is his promise and our hope."

May God bless you in your dedicated work and in your heroic sacrifices and charity.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+John O. Barres

Monthly Intentions and Development for Spiritual Adoption

May

In the 3rd month of spiritual adoption, we pray for pro-life physicians to be readily available who will care for both mother and child as patients, and direct all medical actions toward safeguarding their lives and health, including those in high-risk pregnancies and the commonly termed "hard cases."

Your baby is making progress, developing all of his external features and internal organs. His brain is functioning at 40 days. His mother can hear his heartbeat now on an ultrasonic stethoscope. His milk-teeth buds are present at 6 1/2 weeks. From this moment onward, your spiritually adopted baby grows and refines his body. Everything he needs to survive once he is born already is present by the end of the eighth week. Please pray for him and his parents.
